Jane Doe Inc., the Massachusetts Coalition Against Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence, is excited to bring anti-violence educators and preventionists, activists, community organizers, human services, youth development and health care providers, educators, employers, coaches, and allies to a day-long summit to learn, share, and network. We will explore:

- the INTERSECTIONS between gender equity, racial justice, and healthy masculinities;
- the IMPACT these issues may have on survivors of gender-based violence and community violence;
- the primary prevention and community organizing OPPORTUNITIES, including initiatives led by men, to foster safety and justice;
- the need to UNPACK our understanding of masculinity beyond cisgender men; and
- the ROLES that each of us can play to foster a society where everyone can be their full and authentic selves free from fear and violence.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: BYRON HURT is an Activist, Lecturer, Writer, Award Winning Documentary Filmmaker including his film “Hip Hop: From Beats and Rhymes” and new project called “Hazing.” Byron has been using his craft, his voice, and his writings to broaden and deepen how people think about gender violence, race, music, visual media, and food justice.
